The "Met" showcases some of the most valuable and breathtaking pieces of art in the world. Join us as we take the day to travel into NYC to this renowned museum and view its extensive galleries, displays, and exhibits. A one-hour guided "highlights" tour led by a Museum lecturer provides an excellent introduction to the Met's offerings. Lunch is on your own in the Museum café or at any of the nearby local eateries.

Visit the site of the critical and tide-turning Civil War battle, of Lincoln's profound Gettysburg Address, and the home of President Dwight D. Eisenhower. Our trip includes a battlefield tour with a professional guide, a visit to the Eisenhower Historic Site, and the opportunity to view the new multi-million dollar Visitor's Center with the new Cyclorama and museum of one of the largest collections of Civil War memorabilia in the world. Lunch is on your own at the Visitor's Center Saloon; we'll stop for dinner on the way home (at participant's cost).
